This message is from an EXTERNAL SENDER

Be cautious, particularly with links and attachments.

Kevin,

There are no non-privileged communications to produce other than the data itself, which you already have. As we noted in our letter, we continue to represent Authenticom and provide legal advice regarding this litigation. Our legal advice to Authenticom about providing additional data in this litigation is privileged.

We do not believe this circumstance is any different than CDK's own communications with outside counsel about producing additional data in this litigation. Of course, we would not seek those communications because they are privileged.

Best,
Dan

Counsel,

During our meet and confer on Friday, you also said you would consider our request that you produce all communications requesting and transmitting the data, as well as any communications between Kellogg/AutoLoop and Authenticom regarding the nature of the data. Such communications are not privileged. Please confirm today whether you will produce any such written communications and when we can expect to receive them.

Thanks,
Kevin
